Burnout. Recent studies suggest that roughly two-thirds of doctors and nurses have signs of it. You probably know what burnout is: long-term stress leading to emotional exhaustion and a lack of a sense of personal accomplishment. Burnout can threaten anyone who tries to seriously serve and love others. How does our faith inform this challenging experience, and how do we find refreshment?

The apostles face something like burnout this week in Mark 6. They are run down from their missionary work, and Jesus says, “Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while.” For them, and for us, it takes humility to intentionally rest. It means the world can go on without us. It stings our pride to admit God is necessary and we are not. Choosing to leave our good work to be with him — whatever the cost — is an act of humble faith. And that trust in God begins to revive us.

But there’s more to it. Hilariously, Mark tells us that throngs of needy people find out where the apostles are going and arrive ahead of them. Imagine the exasperation of the burnt-out apostles. “Can we please get a minute to ourselves? This is not healthy!” And Jesus seems to encourage the boundary violation by telling his frayed followers to feed the crowd. Look: once we move into humble rest, he calls us to more work, because we are made for love, not for rest. But Jesus does the vast bulk of the labor. He himself is the one who multiplies the small offering until everyone is satisfied.

What finally gives our heart rest isn’t more vacation time. It’s experiencing the super abundant generosity of God for us and those whom we serve.

A Stewardship Moment

The Letter to the Ephesians reminds us that Christ is creating a new world order: one that brings about relationships based on love, peace, reconciliation, hope and unity. As a Eucharistic community, we are stewards of Christ's new creation. How are we promoting peace and reconciliation? How are we showing love for our neighbors? What are we doing to encourage unity and understanding among those with whom we gather around the Lord's Table each week?

Thank you to our visitors for worshipping with us today. Won't you please sign our guest book? It is located in the area near the Bluemound exit. And as a thank you for coming, please take one of our visitor packets or "goody bags." You are always welcome at St. Therese.

St Therese Reuniting Us As

"...One Nation, Under God..." Prayer Service

This is the third weekend of the month and we ask you to join us for our monthly Prayer Service in the Chapel after Mass. The service is about 25 minutes, and we look forward to you joining us.

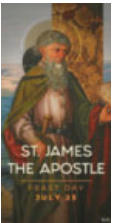

We will say the Rosary and ask Blessed Mary to ask the Lord to help reunite us as "...One Nation, Under God..." with Love and Respect for all. We also do a short meditation to help remind us that while we are all different, we need to Love one another! Help us with prayers to gain back our "...One Nation, Under God..." again!

Thank You,

St Therese Parish Council

St. James the Apostle | July 25th

Saint James the Apostle is also called James, son of Zebedee, or James the Greater to distinguish him from the other James in Jesus' group of twelve. Most of what we know about Saint James is recorded in the New Testament. He and his brother John were collected by Jesus along the sea of Galilee. Matthew 4:18-22 tells the story of Jesus calling first Simon Peter and his brother Andrew and then the sons of Zebedee. In Mark 3:17 the brothers receive a nickname from Jesus who calls them "sons of thunder" because of their many extreme reactions, like that in Luke 9:54 when they offer to call down fire on a Samaritan village.

Saint James was part of Jesus' intimate circle, a witness to the Transfiguration, the resurrection of Jarius' daughter, and the agony in the garden of Gethsemane. In A.D. 44 Herod Agrippa had "James, the brother of John, killed by the sword." (Acts 12:2) He is the only apostle whose martyrdom is written of in the New Testament.

According to Spanish tradition, his body was taken to Santiago de Compostela, Spain where his relics were rediscovered in 9th century. This tradition has sometimes been attributed to a passage in the Song of Roland which tells of St. James appearing to Charlemagne in a dream, prophesying that Charlemagne would conquer the Moors in Spain. This was followed by a vision of stars which if followed would lead to the saint's lost tomb. In the Middle Ages Compostela was a hugely popular pilgrimage site. The saint's relics continue to rest in the cathedral there and one can still undertake the pilgrimage.

Ways to Soak Up the Son This Summer

- ◆ No shoes, no shirt....I'll serve you.

You've probably noticed a sign like this on the door of a store - "No shoes, no shirt, no service." Though this is intended to be a notice for carefree beachgoers to dress appropriately to enter the establishment, the reality is that there are many in our world that lack shoes and clothes. Make it your personal mission to find a way to serve the poor and oppressed this summer. Find a homeless shelter, crisis pregnancy center, or summer camp for troubled youth to give to in some way during these three months.

"Whoever oppresses the poor shows contempt for their Maker, but whoever is kind to the needy honors God." Proverbs 14:31

- ◆ Join Your Library's Summer Reading Program

Well...you might be too old to receive the prizes that libraries frequently offer to kids for reading over the summer, but it is still a good idea to pick up a book (or two!) that will provide you with some spiritual insight. We have a good list of books to get you started in this post:

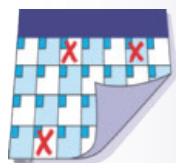

<http://catholic-link.org/2015/07/31/26-catholic-books-you-should-be-reading/>

"So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ." - Romans 10:7

- ◆ Find a Mentor and Be a Mentor

If you have a little extra time on your hands this summer, use it to invest in someone. First, invest in yourself. Ask God to lead you to someone who could be a spirit mentor to you. Asking a priest, your Godparents, or your former youth group leader might be a good place to start. To lead others, it is important to have someone leading you. In addition to investing in yourself, find someone that you could be a mentor to as well.

STEWARDSHIP of TALENT

Growing in Generosity

Rooted in Faith

Talents are only experienced if you try and then practice them. Realizing our experiences of life are influenced by our faith in a generous God, they grow into talents. Smiling, listening, talking, sharing, walking, making, writing, thinking, working, and praying are just a tiny portion of talents that have accumulated. And yes, God has been generous with many life experiences that produce many talents. Discipleship (Volunteering ourselves) becomes another prayer in your life as well.

Try and practice being a part of a liturgical ministry and committees because that helps our worship and parishes to be complete. Because you are generous, so will you experience the generosity of God through worship and others. Say yes and engage because of your God-given generous self.

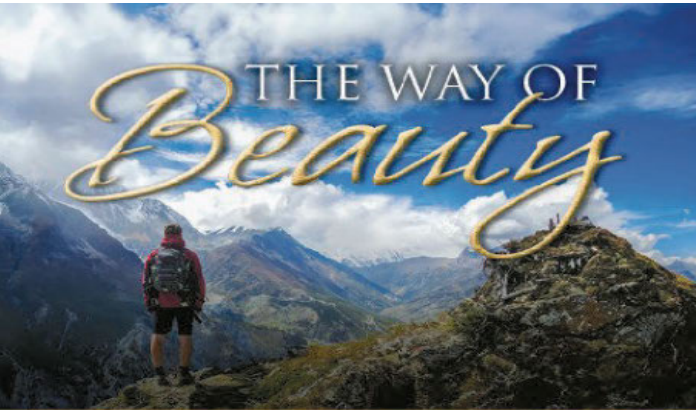

From the Earth Ministry: Retzer Nature Center

Besides the Catholic Ecology Center in Neosho (promoted in several previous bulletin articles), the Retzer Nature Center just west of Waukesha, is another outstanding place to spend a day this summer, especially if you take your children or grandchildren. This year the Retzer Center is celebrating 50 years of existence. The Center offers many well-maintained and marked hiking trails, along with a variety of environmental programs delivered through the Environment Learning Center. The Horwitz DeRemer Planetarium is also part of the Nature Center, providing educational programs of astronomical interest.

Check the website at www.waukeshacounty.gov/retzernaturecenter for a listing of activities and programs and the times offered. The Center is a couple miles west of Waukesha off Hwy 18 (Summit Ave). Although it is part of the Waukesha County Park system, admission and parking are free (no Waukesha County Parks Permit required).

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly – July 28

World Day
for Grandparents
and the Elderly

Next weekend, we celebrate the fourth annual World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. Pope Francis has established this celebration on the fourth Sunday of July, near the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus.

The theme for this year's celebration is a line from Psalm 71 – "Do not cast me off in my old age."

This choice was "meant to call attention to the fact that, sadly, loneliness is the bitter lot in life of many elderly persons, so often the victims of the throwaway culture."

The Holy Father said he instituted the World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly because "grandparents are often forgotten, and we forget this wealth of preserving roots and passing on" what the elderly have received. He emphasized the importance of grandparents and grandchildren getting to know one another, because "as the prophet Joel says, grandparents seeing their grandchildren dream," while "young people, drawing strength from their grandparents, will go forward and prophesy."

We will bless all Grandparents and Elderly members of our parishes at all Masses next weekend to honor their contributions to their families and our parish family. Check your Parish website to read the letter written by the Holy See.

Memory Screening (FREE)

Tuesday, July 30 from 8:30AM-12:00PM

As we get older, it is important to recognize any changes we may experience, especially in relation to our memory. A memory screen is defined as a wellness tool that helps identify possible changes in memory and cognition. This is not a diagnostic tool, but a screening with a Certified Dementia Specialist that can provide early detection for dementia. Screenings will be held in the Wauwatosa Health Department located at 7725 W. North Avenue, inside the Wauwatosa Civic Center. The screenings are FREE and are sponsored by the Milwaukee County Aging and Disabilities Resource Center. For appointments, call or email the Wauwatosa Health Department at 414-831-5543 or email: khecht@wauwatosa.net.

Save a Life and participate in our next blood drive at St. Vincent Pallotti Parish Center on August 10th from 8:00AM to noon. The bonus is that all presenters are provided a delicious breakfast compliments of the Human Concerns Committee. Can't make the drive? Just mention our group name, St. Vincent Pallotti and our drive will get credit. Register at <https://donate.wisconsin.versati.org/donor/schedules/zip> or call Cathy Healey at (414) 412-7940. See you at the blood drive!
