St. Josephine Bakhita | February 8

The story of St. Josephine Bakhita (1869-1947) is a story that many people taken into slavery have experienced. Born in the Darfur region of Sudan, she was kidnapped at the age of 8 and sold into slavery many times. As she passed from owner to owner, she experienced the moral and physical humiliations associated with slavery. It was only at the age of 13 that her suffering was alleviated after she was bought for the Italian Consul in Sudan. It was here that she was fortunate to receive kindness, respect, and peace from her new master.

She was later handed over to the Canossian Sisters when she made the case that slavery had been outlawed in Italy for years. She was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic Church in 1890, where she took the name Josephine. She later entered the Institute of St. Magdalene of Canossa in 1893 and made her profession three years later.

St. Josephine Bakhita's next 50 years were spent serving people through cooking, sewing, embroidery, and housekeeping. She was a source of encouragement and her constant smile won people's hearts, as did her humility and simplicity. Today she is known as the patron saint of victims of modern slavery and human trafficking. ©LPi

Did You Know???

St. Blaise - February 3

St. Blaise is a bishop and martyr who lived in the Fourth century in Turkey and Armenia during a time of intense persecution of Christians. Blaise is believed to have been born to wealthy and noble parents and became a physician before he was made a bishop. According to legends, he possessed the power of healing both people and animals. Stories say he was instructed by the Lord to flee to a cave in the woods to escape persecution where he became a friend to wounded and ill animals. It was here that he was seized for his Christian beliefs. On his way to jail, he was approached by a woman whose son was choking on a fish bone. Blaise miraculously cured the boy with a prayer and the sign of the cross. On his feast on February 3, we recall this miracle cure and celebrate the blessing of the throats.

Candles

Candles are an important part of the feast of St Blaise and the blessing of the throats. A woman for whom Blaise performed a miracle presented him with candles to light the darkness in his jail cell. The Saint also said that anyone who lit a candle in his memory would be free of infection. According to tradition, on the feast of St. Blaise, two candles fastened in the shape of a cross are held to the throat of those seeking healing from ailments or mishaps of the throat and a special blessing is said.

St. Blaise, pray for us!

From the Earth Ministry: Eco-Laundry Update

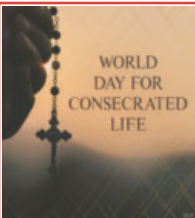

In 2023 we mentioned that one of our Ministry members started using “laundry sheets” as an alternative to popular liquid or powdered laundry detergent. Waste water from the most-advertised popular brands contains harmful chemicals and microfibers. Sustainable alternatives like Seventh Generation liquid detergent and other eco-brands contain none or far lesser amounts of harmful chemicals, while producing plastic-free waste water. Same goes for laundry sheets which are packaged in biodegradable or recycled paper instead of plastic.

Most recently in August, 2024, Consumer Reports found that laundry sheets were okay for routine laundry but didn’t work as well as traditional detergents, especially on stains or heavily soiled materials. From their experience in using laundry sheets, our Ministry member found them just fine on stained and heavily soiled areas if sprayed in advance with a pretreatment.

The member recently switched from laundry sheets to tablets made by Blueland (www.blueland.com). They were amazed that such a small thing (about the size of two quarters on top of each other) can create clean clothes just as well as any of the products they used in the past. They also reiterated that laundry sheets and tablets are wonderful for travel – no worry about accidental leaks soaking items in your suitcase.

For more information on eco-friendly laundry alternatives check out what Good Housekeeping found in their 2024 testing at www.goodhousekeeping.com/home-products/g43355973/best-eco-friendly-laundry-detergents/. Note that even popular brands like Tide and Gain now offer more environmentally friendly variations (but they still come in plastic containers).

World Day for Consecrated Life February 2, 2025

God of all goodness, you have called people to follow you faithfully. Humans have heard that call and many choose to follow your call in varied and faith-filled lives.

Some follow your call in private, silent lives as hermits; some choose to follow you with lives lived as virgins and widows; while others choose public lives of vowed men and women as religious brothers and sisters.

Abundantly give to these men and women the courage to follow their call as witnesses to your gifts and faith and service to the world.

We ask this in faith through the name of Jesus our Savior.

Amen.

Presentation of the Lord

Luke's Gospel is the only one to mention the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple. What is Luke trying to communicate here and what connection does it have with Mary?

February 2 is exactly forty days after December 25, the nativity of Jesus. Jewish law (Ex 13:2, 12) dictated that Jesus, as the firstborn, be consecrated to God. This was done by the parents as they presented their Son in the Temple.

Jewish law further specified (Lv 12:2-8) that a mother was ritually impure after giving birth, and that she had to wait a set period of time (forty days for a boy) before she was to offer a sacrifice to the Lord for purification.

The convergence of these two Jewish regulations occasions Luke's account of both the Presentation of the Lord and the Purification of Mary. These days the liturgical emphasis is more on the Presentation of Jesus. Luke highlights the role of Simeon and Anna, two righteous Jews who recognized Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah and praised God for being able to see and experience such a marvel in their lifetimes.

Simeon's prayer concerning the special role of Jesus states that Jesus is "a light for revelation to the Gentiles." This phrase eventually originated the custom of blessing candles on this day which were to be used in the ceremonies, rituals, and processions throughout the church year. Thus February 2 is also known as Candlemas Day. This day is indeed a rich feast to be savored. ©LPi
