18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.”
- Lk 12:21

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD, ©LPi

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12:13-21

Recent studies suggest that millennials will be the first generation in America to be worse off than their parents in terms of financial earnings and job status. Many lament this. I propose that this week's Gospel provides a hopeful way to see the trend as good news.

The Lord Jesus says, “Take care to guard against greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist in possessions” (Luke 12:15). Greed damages us with the deception that we are what we possess. But to Jesus, this is simply not true. What makes us happy is who we are, who we become.

Does not the expectation that every generation should do better than their parents subtly mask the poison of greed? A similar attitude is mirrored in the man who demands that Jesus justly arrange his share of the family inheritance. Despite the injustice, Jesus will not play that game. In fact, he seems to prefer that the man have less than his parents. What good would having more be to this man if he becomes enslaved and miserable by greed? What good would it be for us to have more if it means we become much less?

In allowing the man to have less, Jesus opens a space for him to become more: a man free to love. In that much more meaningful sense, perhaps he was better off than his parents. Maybe the millennials will be, too. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Devotions, Explained!

Holy Hour

A holy hour is the practice of spending one hour's time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, praying and meditating on the agony of Jesus Christ. More broadly, a holy hour can also refer to any 60 minutes set aside in prayer and reflection, whether in church or elsewhere.

The holy hour devotion dates to the late 17th century, when St. Margaret Mary Alacoque received visions of Jesus Christ. In these visions, the Lord requested that St. Margaret Mary spend one hour every Thursday evening lying prostrate and meditating upon his agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. This practice calls back to the Gospel of Matthew, which tells of Jesus' desire for the disciples to "remain here and keep watch with me" (Matthew 26:38) as he awaited his passion.

Holy hours can be made privately or in community, and the USCCB has created a variety of different holy hour formats that can be found at usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/prayers-and-devotions/eucharistic-devotion. ©LPi

Emmaus 90 Summer Watch Parties!

From The Earth Ministry:

Balloons can be Dangerous

Balloons are seen as fun and harmless, but can have deadly consequences for wildlife. A released latex balloon can rise high enough in the air that it bursts into pieces and falls back to land. If it doesn't get very high and falls back to earth still partly inflated, it can be mistaken for food by turtles or sea birds. The bits of latex get stuck in their guts and cause starvation. The strings tie up or strangle animals.

Foil (aka Mylar) balloons are a synthetic plastic with a metallic coating and never biodegrade. They can land on power lines and cause outages. The strings can entangle animals, causing pain and starvation. In all cases, they contribute to garbage pollution.

Intentional balloon releases for celebrations are the most egregious offenders. Tens, hundreds, or thousands of balloons make an impressive display, and then they begin their damage. We can stop balloon releases for our private celebrations and discourage them in public celebrations. If we wish to do more, we can join the volunteer organizations that are picking up debris and recording the locations and amount of balloon specific debris. This improves the current situation (garbage pickup) and gives data to direct further efforts to solve this problem.

Catechesis Corner

- This fall, we have expanded our religious education partnership to include St. Jude. This provides us with an opportunity to have even more meaningful offerings for our youth and families. Faith formation classes, at this point, are scheduled to take place at St. Jude School so that catechists can have a full range of instructional technologies at their disposal.
- In order to answer your questions regarding the structure of the program, calendar, and curriculum, Heather Warner, Director of Faith Formation, will be hosting two Meet & Greets this summer:
 - Sunday, August 10 after the 10:30AM Mass at St. Vincent Pallotti-West
 - Sunday, August 17 after the 9:00AM Mass at St. Therese Parish
- Registration for next year's classes is available online, but if you'd prefer a paper form, please contact Heather in the St. Therese Parish Office. Please register no later than September 1.
- If you know of a family who could be invited and benefit from our Religious Education program, please call either Parish Office and we will contact them.

God's Work

Our Hands

Sow generously and reap generously - 2 Corinthians 9:6

God's Work is giving life to you and our world. Your financial support is essential to carrying out God's Work in our parish. With our treasure of money, that is a result of God's work in and through us, we try to provide the necessities for ourselves and family now and in the future. Now there is God's Family, our parish, who rely on the necessities that supports our faith. Those necessities include gathering in church buildings and their utilities, providing celebrations of liturgies, the priest/pastor to provide Christ as food for our souls, and support staff that listen and share all that our parishes have to offer. Your generosity provides power for you and your spiritual needs.

Trust that His work, around and in us, opens our hands. We engage by means of our Time in prayer, our Talent volunteering in our parish community, and increased Treasure in support of the Church, its people.

Rich in all things, generous on all occasions - 2 Corinthians 9:11

Called & Gifted Workshop

In your Baptism and Confirmation, you received gifts that our world needs. Do you know yours? As you uncover your gifts, you discover that they are important clues to the particular mission God has for you. These gifts of the Holy Spirit, called charisms, enable you to be a channel of God's love, truth, beauty, mercy, healing, and provision for others.

The Catherine of Sienna Institute's Called & Gifted Workshop is an offering of GalileeU, a program by the Archdiocese of Milwaukee Office of Evangelization and Catechesis. For more information, go to www.archmil.org/called-and-gifted
